COMMUNIST WORLD PRAYER GROUP, Thursday, Jan. 31, after chapel, Room 304. East Germany will be our primary interest. There are many Christians living in Communist countries, and many who would come to Christ if they had opportunity. TOJ

READING ROOM. The present Student Council regulation insists upon absolute silence in the Reading Room. The Student Council would like to relax this regulation for a trial period of one month. During this time whispering in the Reading Room will be allowed. You will have an opportunity to discuss the advantages or disadvantages of continuing this policy at your class meeting on Feb. 8. On the basis of this discussion the Council will come to a decision which we hope will be to the satisfaction and advantage of the majority. A. Aronis

Please do not bring, eat or drink food, candy, ice cream, coke, etc., in the Library Building. CBA

THE LIBRARY AND NON-FULLER STUDENTS. Our Library is open for reference to anyone wishing to do theological research or reference work. They are welcome to come in and use our books here. We also have a membership plan whereby pastors and theological students in this area may for $5.00 a year take out regular circulating books, subject to the same rules as our students, and also use the library facilities. Although we now have plenty of study space for our Fuller family, we do not have space nor personnel to serve as a study hall for students from local colleges, high schools, etc. Please so inform your practical work groups. CBA

FMF MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH. Every month a missionary-alumnus will be featured in a display on the third floor of Payton Hall. This will introduce an alumnus who represents one phase of the many different activities in which Fuller graduates are engaged throughout the world. MARVIN MAYERS is the Missionary of the Month for January. Dr. Mayers graduated from Fuller in 1952 and serves with the Wycliffe Bible Translators in Central America. The Seminary is urged to remember him in prayer. DSB

PHILOTHEANS. Monday, Feb. 4, Philothean Fellowship will meet in the Chapel at 7:30. Dr. Donald Cole, Associate Professor of Counseling and Dean of Students, will speak on some functions of psychology in fostering mental health. Refreshments and a social time will follow. K. Tucker

LINEN SERVICE NOTICE. To clear up any confusion, the procedure on the linen service is as follows: All dirty linen must be left in front of Dorm 98 by 8 a.m. on Thursday. Anyone who does not do this should not take linen for that week. If you have further questions, call Carl Gold at Sy 8-0221.

TABLE TENNIS TOURNAMENT. There will be a table tennis tournament starting next month. If you are interested in entering, please put your name on the list in the table tennis room by mid-term, Saturday, Feb. 9. Fee: 25 cents to cover cost of equipment. OQH
